SY CAPT. WINTERBURN, UZSRIDGE Tune—" Walk in the light,"

Floods of mercy break around us, Jesus died to make us free, Fotters fall that long have bound us, List! the Spirit calls to thee.

We'll die in the war—in the war, We'll die in the war—in the war, We'll die in the war, in the war, We are washed in the blood of the Le

While like rain your tears are lalling, He can wesh you white as snow; While for help the souls are calling, Yes, the witness you may know.

Weary sincer, Obrist is speaking,
Come re meany unto Mc,
I from fear and death will shield thoo,
Heavon's gate is Osivary.

Glorious light is dawning o'er us, Through the Dear Redeemer's name; And the way grows hright before us Sinner, now this blessing claim.

Some may shun, and some may leave
And the crown may never wear,
I will follow Thee, my Saviour,
And the glory I will share.

SAVIOUR, I AM COMING.

My nood of Salvation I realized well,
And many a time when I leard others
till,
Of the kind, loving Saviour, who had set
them fros,
I wished how I wished, He would save even me.

Yet I stool hositating, unwilling to yield, Ashamed to own Jesus, my guideand my stiled; Though I know that the Pather had given His Son, That simere like me might be saved every ons.

Satan argued :-- "You're good as som Christians you see,
Do not worsy about it, if you don't fool
quite free;
Just try every day to be as good as you You will sorely be bappy if you follow this plan."

But over the still, small voice seemed to "If you would be saved, there is only one way, And I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, Life, Wby not come to your Saviour and cease your valu strife?".

I at last gave up trying, to Jesus I came, And asked Him to holp mo, and now, bless His namo! I know I can trust Him whatever befall, In my heart Jesus now reigns cuprome over all.
